ALPHA SIGMA NU

Membership in Alpha Sigma Nu, one of highest honors that can come to a student of a Jesuit College, was conferred this year on Earl Phillips, Thomas Prud'homme, Joseph Olivier, Michael Salmon, Joseph Bosarge and Joseph Langan.

The new members were initiated at the fraternity banquet at the Battle House on May 21. The veteran members included Lawrence McGinn, David Littlefield, Stanley Nolan, and Bryan Clark.

Candidates for the Jesuit honorary fraternity are chosen by the Dean of Studies on the basis of scholarship, loyalty, and service. These candidates are then passed upon by the members of the fraternity. Membership of the Spring Hill chapter of Alpha Sigma Nu is limited to ten.

The fraternity was founded at Marquette University in 1915 by Fr. John A. Danihy, S.J. The Spring Hill chapter was established in 1937. Fr. John Deignan serves as faculty moderator for the group.

BETA BETA BETA

Traditionally Beta Beta Beta is counted among the most active organizations on the Spring Hill campus. During the year Beta Alpha chapter did much to reaffirm that tradition and add to it.

Besides the regular bi-monthly meetings which featured scientific programs open to all interested in the biological sciences Tri-Beta sponsored several social affairs such as the dance for freshman biology students in October, the annual Christmas party, a Fall and a Spring fishing trip, and a beach party in May.

Two outstanding events occurred during the year which deserve special mention. In November President Truman appointed Fr. Yancey, moderator of the group and chairman of the Department of Biology, to the National Science Foundation. This group is designed to form a national policy for scientific research.

In March the local chapter served as host to the Regional Convention of Beta Beta Beta. Sixty representatives from twelve colleges of the western district of the Southeastern Region attended the meet which featured both social and scientific activities.

Jack Redden guided the destinies of the fraternity as president. He was ably assisted by Bob Klein, vice-president; Donald Duff, secretary; and Jim Browning, historian.

The names of ten students were listed in the 1951 edition of the Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges yearbook.

Recognition by Who's Who is made after a careful consideration of five qualities of the nominated student: his scholarship, leadership, cooperation in educational and extra-curricular activities, general citizenship, and his promise of future usefulness. Nominations are made by the college faculty and must be approved by the Who's Who organization.

The names of the men listed above (plus Joseph Langan, absent when the picture was taken) were released in November. The Spring Hill representatives for 1951 are a good sampling of the kind of collegians that are at the core of the varied activities on the Hilltop.

Their record of collegiate leadership was carried in the Who's Who yearbook which is circulated on a nationwide basis.

The Sodaloty of Our Lady is the central spiritual organization on the campus. Composed of students who have passed through a long and exacting probation it aims to foster in its members and spread among others an ardent devotion, reverence, and filial love towards the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Spring Hill's Sodaloty channels its many activities through committees. The Marian Committee sponsored the nightly Rosary in each of the residence halls as well as the MSSU Living Rosary in October. The Mission Committee backed the activities of the Jesuit missionaries in Ceylon by its money-making exertions centered around the Thursday night movies. The Eucharistic Committee sponsored the move towards a more active participation in the Church's liturgy. Several social highlights of the year, such as the Annual Sodaloty Christmas Dinner, were the work of the Social Committee.

In sixteen issues and about a hundred thousand words the Springhillian chronicled and criticized life on the Hilltop 1950-51. Those sixteen issues were the product of the blood, sweat and tears of the men pictured on these pages.

Among other things that made the journalistic year memorable were the publicity and promotion work done on the annual retreat, the Who's Who nominees, Spring Hill's championship basketball team, and Joe Buchanan's cartoons and columns. The Springhillian's campaign to replace the steel trays used in the dining room with plates incited student action on this point.

The Motley is the campus vehicle of creative writing. In its second year it ventured forth twice and its imaginative covers contained each time essays, short stories and articles of high character. Variety was the keynote of this most urbane of campus publications. Its contributors sought inspiration everywhere from Plato to Runyan and from Bellarmine to Shelley. Earl Phillips guided its destinies as editor.

Student Council

The Student Council, composed of representatives from each class and from selected organizations, is the behind the scenes group which coordinates campus activities, with special emphasis on class elections, celebrations, drives and social events. It also has the important task of representing student opinion and attitudes to the College administration.

Under the active leadership of Larry McGinn the Council this year had a creditable record of achievement including the Blood Donor drive, Red Cross campaign, Student Council Dance, rallies for the GSC champion Badger basketballers and, at the year's end, perhaps the most vigorous class election campaign ever witnessed on the campus.

The YENNI Players

The year 1950-51 saw Yenni Players after a two year incubation period come forth true to their 1949 promise as a really first rate theatre group. Their Fall production of Room Service met with such enthusiasm that they were emboldened to produce a second play in the Spring. This play, The Hasty Heart, proved to all that Spring Hill could boast of an exceptionally able dramatic company.

Joe Buchanan served as Yenni's president and perhaps his most valuable Player was Bert Clark who starred brilliantly in the first production and directed the second with professional competence.

PORTIER DEBATING

ACADEMY

The Portier Debating Academy sponsored again this year the Azalea Debate Tournament which drew sixteen teams from ten Southern and Midwestern universities and colleges. Although they sharply curtailed their intercollegiate debating schedule they presented an informative program before the Student Body on United Nations Day and staged a stimulating debate with Alabama State College on the campus in April.

George Barrett served the group as president.

SANCTUARY SOCIETY

The St. John Berchmans Sanctuary Society is composed of those students who wish to take a more active part in the Church's worship by serving Mass. With dozens of Masses celebrated daily on the campus they found a frequent outlet for their zeal.

The members of the Society were called upon also as acolytes for the Sunday Benediction and the Solemn High Mass of the Holy Ghost attended by the entire Student Body which officially opened the school year in September. They also served at the Baccalaureate Mass in May.

Father Colkin served as faculty moderator of the group. His chief assistant was Walter Mobley.

The purpose of the Spring Hill College Choir is to sing, in a fitting manner, the liturgical music approved and prescribed in the Roman Liturgy. Students thus trained in this organization are in a position to exemplify—in a practical way in their own parish churches—the mind of the Church on sacred music.

During the first semester the Student Choir was quite active on the campus. It sang at the student mass on alternate Sundays, and participated in several high masses, notably the Solemn High Mass on the Feast of Christ the King. It also sang for Benediction on First Fridays, during the student retreat, and at the Living Rosary in October.

Later in the year, the choir members joined with the Mercy Convent Choir, and sang several high masses at St. Joseph's Church in downtown Mobile.

SPRING HILL BAND

The band this year made Hillian history. School-spirited Dan Nolan and Gibbens Robichaux early gathered Badger musicians for their first practice. From then on, at every basketball game, pep rally, in fact, whenever there was a chance, Dixie jive, martial airs, Purple and White, and Gibbens Robichaux resounded in the skies. Fanfare to Gibbens for the constant energy he applied in every musical organization during his college years.

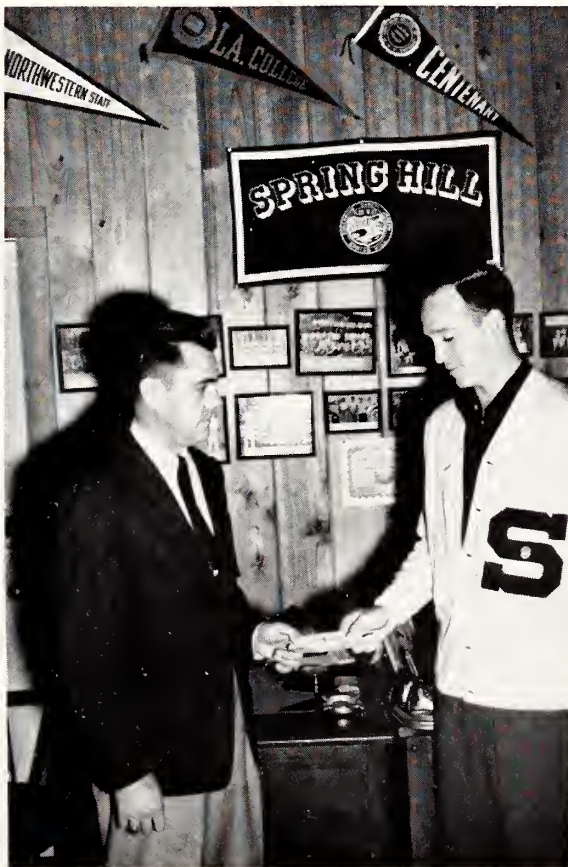

History was the new R.O.T.C. band parading for the year's final inspection of the R.O.T.C. unit and for the Armed Forces Day Parade in downtown Mobile. Other highlights, the Spring Variety Show, commencement, and, of course, the Gulf Shores picnic. For their fidelity thirteen band members received music letters.

S CLUB

The S Club is composed of those men who have won a varsity letter while representing Spring Hill in intercollegiate athletics. President Jim Walsh led this group in a year of real accomplishment. Funds raised by the athletes helped defray the travelling expenses on the Yuletide Eastern trip of the basketball team. A club room was fitted out in the old gym. The Badger Bounces sponsored by the S clubbers were among the liveliest on-campus social events.

DAY STUDENT SODALITY

The Day Students' Sodality lost two of its officers to the religious life during the year. James Hietter, ex-prefect, entered the Jesuit novitiate while John Morgan, secretary, donned the Benedictine habit. Their prefect, Doug Wilson, left at mid-term with the Dixie Division. Despite these difficulties the group blazed new spiritual trails through the year. Milton Bolling took over the reins at mid-year and under the direction of Father Mulcrone the Day Students successfully carried out projects, such as the Family Rosary, daily Rosary by the students during May, and a Spiritual Bouquet for the Holy Father in December.

THE SPRING HILL GLEE CLUB

Starting anew was slow work for the Glee Club of '50-'51 but by December voices and carols were in spirited form. Christmas crowds in Bienville Square listened attentively to a half-hour program of Noels by Spring Hill's gleemen under the direction of Mr. John Leiser and by accordion virtuoso Stan Wanucha.

When Springtime was bustin' out all over, Glee Clubbers after weeks of winter practice were vocalizing for the Azalea Trail Variety Show. They gave a creditable performance of "I Got Shoes," "Alma Mater," and "Purple and White." Memories will stay alive with Bill Clark's rendition of "A Real Low Down Basso" and "Ol' Man River."

The year's finale came with commencement under the oaks when they sang the ancient "Crusader's Hymn," "Alma Mater," and the old spiritual "Battle of Jericho."

Accompanist of the year was faithful and accomplished Fred Kittler.

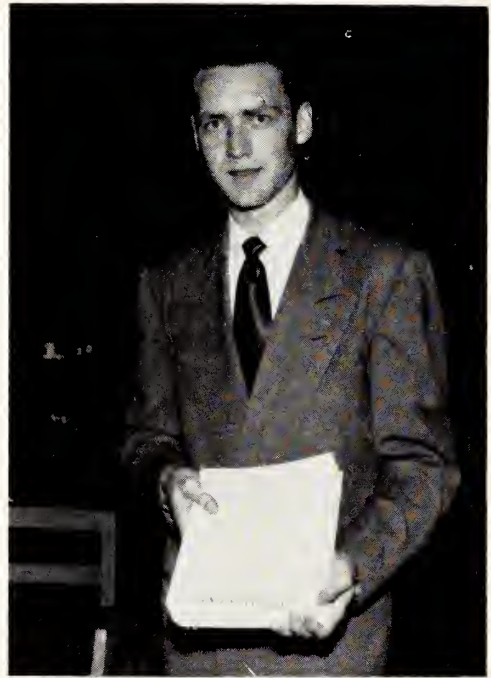

In the early part of May the Glee Club headed out for the waters at Gulf Shores for a picnic.

Mendelian

Father Yancey, Moderator

James Browning, Editor

The Mendelian is the monthly journal of Spring Hill's Tri-Beta chapter. Under the editorship of Jim Browning it continued in its tradition of serving as a vehicle of solid scientific scholarship as well as a clearing house for news of the biology students, faculty, and alumni.

Besides its wide campus circulation the Mendelian is sent to hundreds of paid subscribers among the alumni. It is also mailed to other schools as a faithful witness of the vigor and quality of the activity that goes in Yenni III.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Robert Schutzman, Grand Knight

Other officers: Claude Johnson, Thomas Prud'homme, Gibbens Robichaux, and Anthony Jacque.

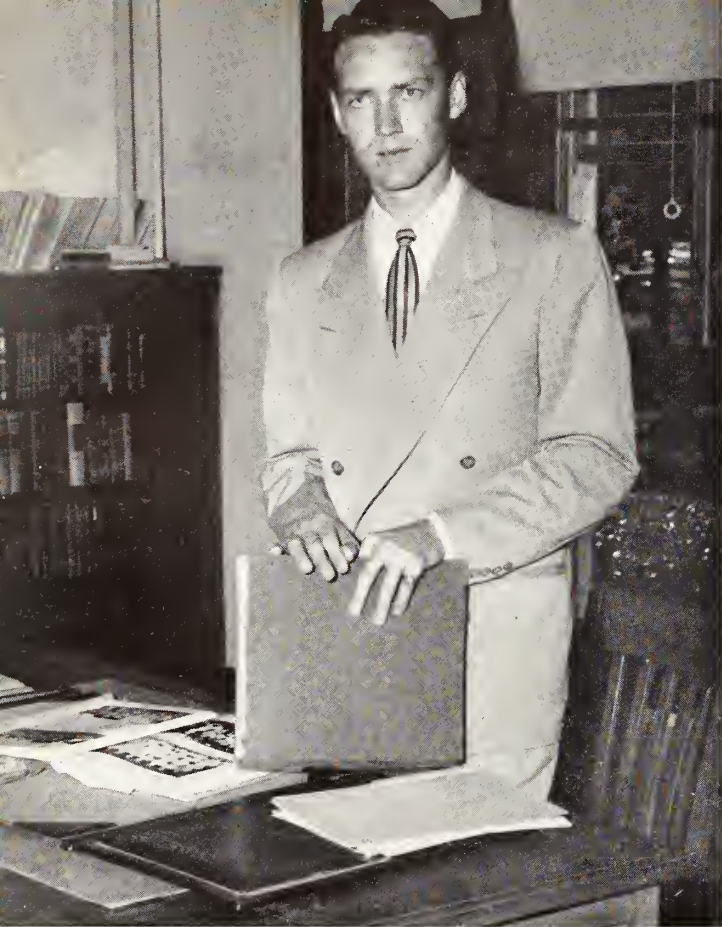

The Father Michael Kenny Council No. 3038 of the Knights of Columbus is composed of college students and men from the surrounding community of Spring Hill. Professor Sweet served as Grand Knight until Decemr when press of duties forced his resig-naiton. Robert Schutzman then took the head post and continued in the Columbian tradition with works of personal and social Catholic Action. Father Colkin was chaplain of the Council.

One of the big new developments at Spring Hill this year was the appearance on the campus of a transportation unit of the R.O.T.C. The school was fortunate in the men sent by the Army to institute the program. The officers, Colonel Moore and Colonel Curtan, and the enlisted men caught the Hill spirit wonderfully. The result was that the unit acquired something specifically Spring Hillian and became an integral part of the college life and spirit. Each drill period was opened with a prayer by Cadet Colonel Claude Johnson and the open air military Mass held on the feast of Our Lady's Immaculate Conception plus the battalion's showing in the Christ the King parade were features which helped make the year memorable. At the year's end the Army inspection team added their seal of approval as they rated the ROTC unit excellent on all three counts.

ALL-CONFERENCE COACH

BILL GARDINER

Coach Gardiner has completed his fifth and most successful year at Spring Hill. In 1946 he took charge of a basketball team that was not winning and was receiving little or no support from the student body. The Badger five has come a long way since then and this steady improvement is to be attributed primarily to the coach.

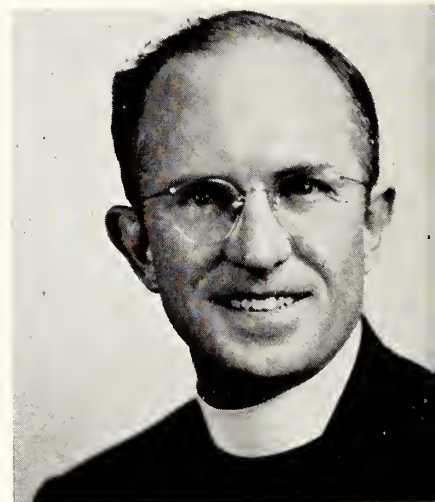

This season Coach Gardiner was named the coach of the year for the Gulf States Conference, the youngest coach to be awarded this honor in the history of the conference.

This year the Hillians employed a switching man to man defense and often used the modified weave on offense.

FR. JOHN WALSH

Athletic Director

Father John Walsh as faculty moderator of athletics supervised the administrative detail connected with fielding varsity teams in four sports. His job primarily was one of liaison between the College administration and the increasingly successful athletic department.

PAUL NAPOLITANO

Assistant Coach

Mr. Napolitano coached the tennis team and the junior varsity basketball team. In addition the aid he rendered to Coach Gardiner in the physical education program and more especially in his work of scouting for and coaching the Varsity cagers can hardly be praised too highly.

Sping Hill 65 - Loyola 63

The Badgers ended the season in a glorious manner, defeating the arch-rival Loyola Wolves 65-63 before a capacity crowd. This made the Hillians easy winners of the Gulf States Conference, giving them their 13th win of the season. But better still, it was the fifth straight defeat the Wolves had suffered at the hands of the Badger Five. This is a feat the Loyola squad is not likely to forget.

The game was the last of the season, full of the unexpected. The lead changed hands nine times and was tied on five other occasions. With two minutes remaining and holding a slight three point lead, the Badgers froze the ball, allowing the Loyolamen only one point. Jim Walsh sparked the Hillmen with 21 tallies; Lavie was high for Loyola with 22.

Coach Paul Napolitano's Lil' Badgers, sparked by Bolling and Ollis, finished the season on top with an enviable 10-2 record. The Lil' Hillians scored 670 points for the season, which gave them a game average of 55.8 points. Their opponents scored 582 points for a 48.5 points per game average. The best game of the season was against Pensacola Junior College in Pensacola. Bolling contributed 27 of the 56 points and hit for six more in an overtime period, leading the Badgers to a 62-59 victory. The Badgers' only losses were to the Jewish Progressive Club and Pensacola Junior College, both teams which they had beaten before.

Bolling and Ollis formed the nucleus of the team, establishing very respectable point averages per game, 13 and 10.7, respectively.

Stan Wanucha

The Badger Baseballers started the season in high style parading to six straight victories before being stopped by the Loyola Wolfpack. They finished the season with a 10-5 win-loss record with one tie. The Hillian nine improved its 1950 standings in every department except earned runs.

On offense it was the heavy bat of Frank Bolling, Les Patrick, and Jules Mugnier, while defensivly it was Stan Wanucha's tireless arm that kept the Badgers in the race. The Hill nine possessed almost impregnable infield defense with Bolling and Mugnier forming the best double-play combo in the league.

The first game with the Loyola champions showed the Badgers at their best. Playing heads-up ball, the Hill nine out-hit and out-fielded the Wolf-gang. George Ryan, veteran left-hander pitched his best game of the season.

Coach Alvin Buckhaults

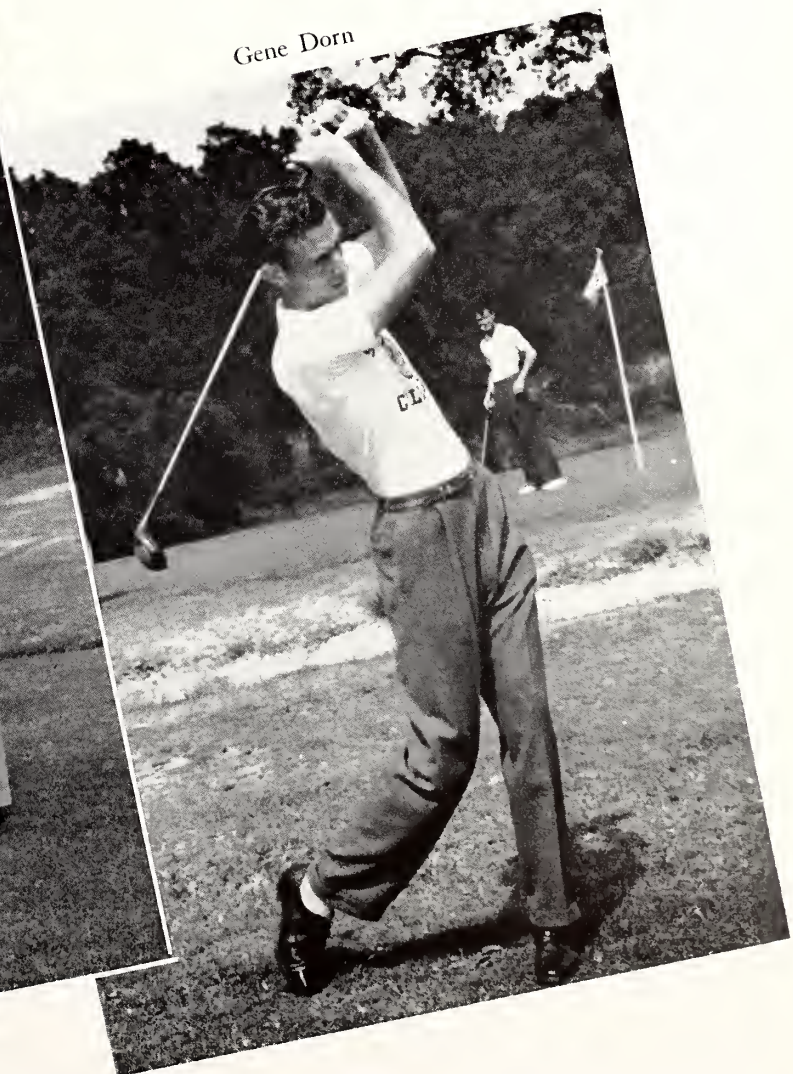

In seasonal standing Alvin Buckhaults' squad compiled the best record for the conference with six wins and one loss. The golf team after enjoying a very successful season was denied championship honors in the final play-offs, bowing to Mississippi Southern in the final round. The Badger golfers had been in possession of the conference crown for the past two seasons.

During the two-day championship tourney at Hattiesburg, Tom Brennan took all the individual honors. His final score was 231 for 54 holes. Brennan was team medalist in eight out of ten seasonal matches and won the championship trophy at Hattiesburg.

“TRAVELERS”

Intramural Football Champs 1950-51

The Travelers and Iberians made history this season in the I.M. football world. Never before had it been necessary for two teams to play three games to decide which team was the better. In the first encounter the Iberians won 6-0, tying the play-off record of both teams at one loss each. The next game was called due to darkness and ended in a 13-13 deadlock. The third and final game was won by the Travelers 20-12. In this final encounter it was the Collins-to-Hubbard combination that made the difference.

The Intramural football program under the competent guidance of Father Arthur Colkin proved to be the best in many years. The teams were divided according to classes and captains were appointed who chose their teams from a list of available entries. As a result the teams were evenly matched, with no single team being unbeatable nor, on the other hand, no single team being incapable of winning. The program was divided into three leagues, the Purple, White and Badger.

In the Purple League the Iberians, sparked by Neil McGee, Larry McGinn, and Al LaSalle took all the honors, cinching the championship in defeating the Demons 50-0, the highest scoring game of the season.

The Pics took the White League defeating Mickey McGranahan's Casanovas in a nip and tuck affair, 6-2.

The hard-hitting Arabs, led by Fisher and Konzen, breezed through the Badger League finishing two games ahead of the second place Travelers. Joe Fisher, Bill Murray and Ed Sonnhalter on offense with Bernie Konzen on defense formed a powerful well-unified team.

GOLF

The Intramural Golf Tournament, which was ably directed by Bob Bauler and Louis Mulherin, ended with Walsh, Prud'homme, Maloney and Benitez taking the honors. In the championship round Jim Walsh defeated Gene Dorn in the most spectacular round of the tourney. Walsh had the match practically cinched going into the 28th hole with a comfortable four hole margin. But Dorn was not to be foreclosed without a struggle. He countered with a series of pars and birdies to even the match going into the last hole, but lost that crucial hole and with it the match.

Walsh's remarkable consistency and putting skill and Dorn's ability to hit a long ball made for a close and interesting match.

In the first flight competition Tod Prud'homme stopped Bert Clark (2-1) in a 36-hole encounter after having defeated Collins and Neuhoff in the preliminary rounds.

Maloney won the second flight by polishing off Keene (5-4), Dean (5-4), and Daly (3-2) in that order. Benitez took third flight honors by eliminating Escalante (3-2) in the semi-finals and Kahler in the final match.

"CHICKASAWS"

The IM program gained even more momentum as the cage season got underway. This time it was a Junior team, the Chickasaws, who broke up the Senior supremacy and came through with championship laurels. For the first time the Frosh entries were a real threat but final rounds of the tournament saw the Chicks down the Arabs and the Iberians to take the crown. Moorhead, Ryan and Sheffield of the Chickasaws won All-Star berths by their stellar play.

Early in October the bowlers from the Hill began making their weekly excursions to the King Lanes in downtown Mobile. Each Sunday morning after Mass and breakfast eight teams met in matches that rarely lost any color despite some of the rather peakish "mornin'-after" performers.

Pete Feil's Chi-Five came out on top in the "dog-eat-dog" race for the second year in a row. Trophies for the champions and runner-up team as well as individual awards for top performers were purchased from the League treasury. Enough money was left over to sponsor a bowlers' picnic at Loyola Villa and to provide a healthy basket of groceries to a needy family in town.

BOWLING

SOFTBALL

"CASANOVAS"

The softball program is probably the most grandiose of the entire IM calendar. For the fourth straight time a Senior team was denied in the final round as Captain Mickey McGrannahan led his Casanovas to victory over the Travelers in a thrilling three-game series. The Travelers, Arabs and Iberians dominated the All-Star teams selected at the end of the season.

The month of January on the intramural calendar is set aside for Volleyball. Twelve teams earned tournament berths this year by their outstanding league play. By the semi-final round only the Eagles, Hornets, Iberians and Nostars remained. It was the sophomore Hornets who finally gained the palm. Jack Doiron and Dennis McCarthy led their mates to the championship.

The pageantry of commencement was first unfolded on Sunday, May 27, at the Baccalaureate Mass held in the College Chapel. Numerous students, parents, friends, and well wishers lined the horseshoe drive of the Quadrangle and the entrance to the Chapel to view the colorful procession as it streamed forth from the lobby of the Administration Building around and into the church. The familiar figures of undergraduates, the Class of '51, and the faculty were now decked out variously in cassocks, ROTC uniforms, academic robes, and liturgical vestments.

Father Sweeney celebrated Holy Mass during which Maj. Thomas C. Hanlon, Chaplain U.S.A., preached the Baccalaureate Sermon. Fr. Hanlon while stressing the seriousness with which the Class of '51 must necessarily face the world warned against any sort of cynical or bitter spirit in reacting to the problems incident upon anyone living in the business or professional world during the coming years.

The Solemn High Mass was sung by the Philosophate Choir.

The Graduation Procession formed on the first floor of Byrne Library and moved out across the campus and up the Avenue of the Oaks. ROTC cadets formed the vanguard of the academic parade and bore the American Flag and the Papal Flag as well as the charter of Spring Hill.

Each of the eighty-nine graduates wore the bachelor's gown with a yoke flaring out to reveal the Spring Hill colors of purple and white. The front of the yoke at the collar was white, yellow, or burnt gold according as the candidate was to receive the Arts, Science, or the Commerce degree.

Behind them marched the faculty. In last place was Fr. Dean and Fr. President accompanying the speakers and recipients of honorary degrees.

His excellency, the Most Rev. T. J. Toolen, presided over the affair with an easy grace and charm that communicated itself to all those on the stage. The seniors wore their proper dignity with an easy aplomb. The Glee Club and Band punctuated the proceedings with several enjoyable selections.

Fr. Donnelly gave his President's report on 1950-51 in Spring Hill history. He ended with an appeal to the graduates to carry spiritual values into the material world.

Major General Frank Heilman, chief of the Army Transportation Corps, delivered his address with military directness and vigor. His appreciation from a military and a world-crisis standpoint of the sort of education the graduates had received was penetrating, timely.

Then came the awarding of degrees, eighty-nine of them. Seventy-seven of the recipients wore the customary bachelor's gowns, seven the Jesuit cassock, and five the habit of Brothers of the Sacred Heart.

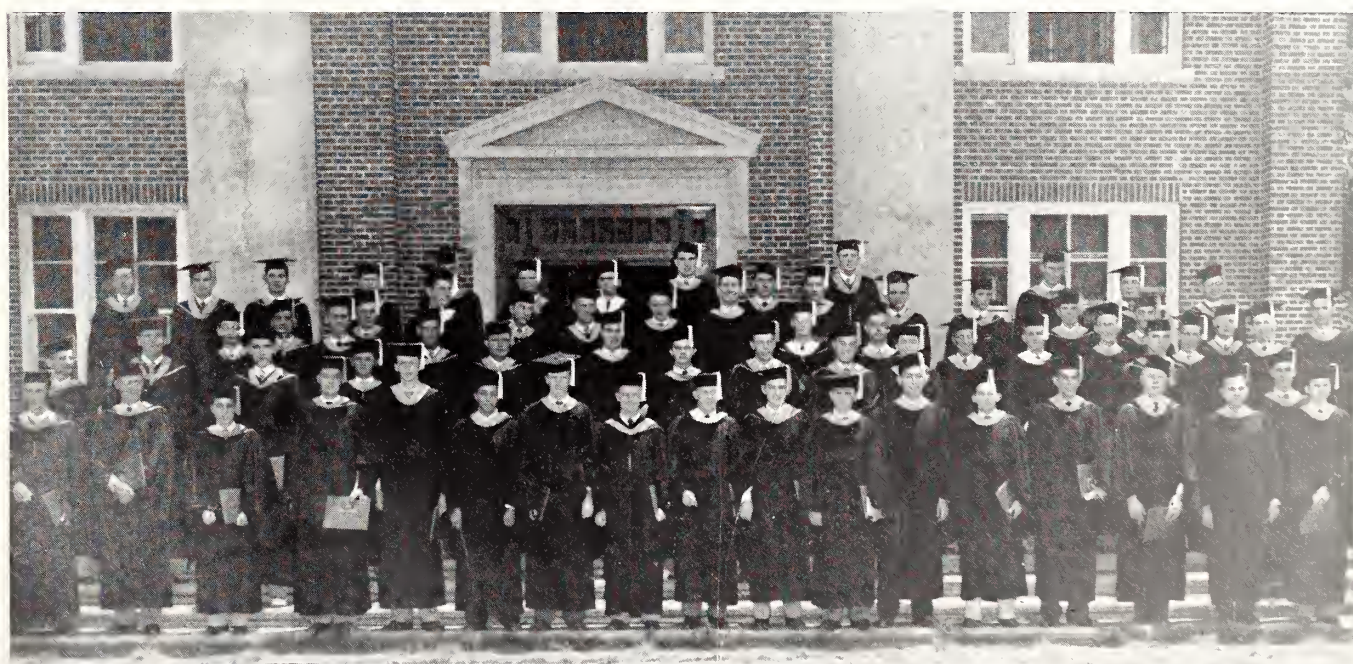

Two honorary degrees were rewarded: one to Mr. J. H. Littlefield, "Father of all the Littlefields,"—there have been five of them at Spring Hill; the other to Capt. N. G. Nicolson, president of Waterman Steamship Company.

And then, speaking in the honored place—for this was the graduates' day;—came Earl Phillips, elected by the seniors to give the Valedictory. His farewell was literary, Christ-centered, deeply inspiring. Perhaps of all the distinguished speakers that day he got the closest attention and most response from the audience.

Last of all Fr. Smith called upon the Most Reverend Bishop to speak. With a gusto and a fervor he impressed upon the Class of '51 the sum of their advantage and the seriousness of their task.

Finally came the recessional, down from the stage, through the crowd of parents and friends, and out on the campus once more, alumni now.

Class President Larry McGinn and his date lead the grand march opening the 1951 Senior Prom.

In the afternoon the Junior Class was host to the graduates, their parents, dates plus the faculty at a reception given at the Country Club. The Country Club was also the scene of the Graduation Prom held that evening. Proceedings opened with the Grand March led by Class President Larry McGinn and his date. 'The graduates' callout followed with the honorees wearing their caps and gowns for the last time. At this time the dates of the recent graduates were presented with their favors. Ed Sweeney and his orchestra furnished music for the evening's dancing.

Acknowledgments have become a rather routine part of most books but we of the Torch staff feel that we must take this opportunity to sincerely thank the following persons for the assistance they rendered in helping us assemble and publish this book.

Our thanks go to Mr. Thomas Clancy, S.J., for giving so freely of his time and talent in helping us to prepare copy . . . to Mr. Blake McNeely of Gulf States Engraving Co. for giving us the benefit of his technical know-how . . . to the personnel of Gill Printing Co. for their patience and understanding . . . and, to Adams Studio and Mobile Photo Service for supplying us with the excellent pictures which are so integral a part of any annual.
